NEW EVIL

INTRODUCTION

Our story takes place in the Whispering Forest, an ancient forest that over the years became smaller and smaller due to too many communities rising and needing more resources. The players hear about a rumor among the land that a huge number of people have been taken by lizardfolk just outside of Whispering Forest. The players take an interest in this rumor to see if it was true just like many others have. When the players gather in Bonewood, they decide to join up with a trade caravan heading out towards the village of Nealion. The adventurers will be offered a quest to investigate these lizardfolk and see what they are up too. After which, the party will decide on whether to help the lizardfolk or let a new evil reign over the region.

STORY OVERVIEW

A dragon is trying to figure out a way to live forever.

CHAPTER 1. LIZARDFOLK GATHERING

The main quest is to determine why the Lizardfolk are gathering.

OPENING

The adventurers will be heading into a village called Nealion. Along the road to Nealion, their caravan get's attacked by a group of Orc's. Side Quest 1. Orc Troublies p5

In Nealion the party will be given 3 quest's.

- One main quest.
- Two side quest.

If the players gather intelligence by asking around the village for information, to figure out its layout along with the surrounding lands. Within these lands, a raiding party of orcs are terrorizing this part of the region. This was the same group of orcs the party ran into on the way there.

If the party doesn't ask around, then direct them to the quest board inside their local tavern.

The party can see two slips of paper hanging on a very old spruce wood quest board for anyone interested in some side work.

MAIN QUEST: TWO QUEST'S IN ONE

When the party decides to see Aust Rothenel the elven noble p16. Aust will tell them

Greetings, have you all traveled this way to help with the Orc troubles, we would be pleased if you could get rid of them quickly. Their presence is making hunting and trading very difficult for my people.

The party needed to take something that the orcs would carry. If a player didn't take an Orc Trophy. The party can't go back and gather something. Have Aust say

How much time has passed. Wild animal's dragged or something claimed the sight. Worry not adventurers as long as they no longer live I am pleased, have a seat. (Aust says gesturing to some stools in front of a fire.) Since you took care of them with ease, maybe just maybe you all can help me with another task...

Skip the "How much time has passed." if the party managed to take an Orc Trophy.

I'm glad to hear of your good news my friends. Please sit, (Aust looks at one of his members and tells them.) Go get 19 SP for your fellow friends. (As Aust turns back to the party.) If you took care of those orcs with ease. Maybe just maybe you all can help with something else.

Double the reward or what you see fit's if a player brings and offers Aust elven ears or flayed elven hide. That way they can honor their dead. Now if a player decides to keep one of those two as a keepsake. The adventurer party is not welcomed back.

Wait for the party to discuss it between themselves.

One of my men has seen a group of two legged lizard's gathering in one spot. I keep getting informed every couple days that their numbers keep growing. We have heard stories of lizard people capturing local's and trader's alike. I just don't know for sure.

SIDE QUEST

SIDE QUEST 2. CAPTURE OR KILL PSEUDODRAGON

The local scout will tell the party about a spot just South of Nealion.

When you travel outside of Nealion you can see down the path a 7 ft. high wooden archway with elvish wood carving on it. As you head South for 20 minutes past the wood archway you will see a grove of trees forming a perfect circle. In the center is nothing but tall green grass blowing in the wind. I'm asking that you don't go near the center and respect my wishes. Once you are there you will be in pseudodragon territory.

If a player asks the elven scout how does the scout know. Replay with, and then hand them 8 nets with 4 sacks.

This is the time of year where pseudodragons gather to mate. I've spent enough time around the forest to pick up a few hobbies such as understanding animal habits and routines.

If a member wants some kind of knowledge to capture pseudodragon easier.

This comes out of the reward. (Handing them a moonstone.)

A member of the party need's to roll and succeed on a DC 15 Wisdom (Survival) check. Once the travel begins. If the party member fails the check. The party lands up wasting 20 minutes and gets lost.

Optional: A different party member can roll and succeed on a DC 10 Wisdom (Survival) check. On a successful check, roll 1d6 + their Wisdom modifier to determine how much food (in pound's), then repeat the same roll for water (in gallon's).

As the party travels, they can see an opening past the trees with twelve medium size rocks making a perfect circle with footprints leading to and from it. Suddenly something flies overhead casting a shadow over the place that you are standing. (Succeed on a DC 12 Wisdom (Perception) check.) 8 Pseudodragon. (Beyond 4 player's, add 2 Pseudodragon.)

The party or player can: (A) Climb up a tree to gather as many pseudodragons passing overhead or: (B) Use shiny moonstone from the elven scout for bait.

(A) After a player captures a pseudodragon from anywhere. Roll a d10 to know the number of round's the pseudodragons will stick around.

(B) If the party is using a shiny moonstone. Roll 2d10 to know the number of round's the pseudodragons will stick around.

CC0 1.0 UNIVERSAL

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

The laws of most jurisdictions throughout the world automatically confer exclusive Copyright and Related Rights (defined below) upon the creator and subsequent owner(s) (each and all, an “owner”) of an original work of authorship and/or a database (each, a “Work”).

Certain owners wish to permanently relinquish those rights to a Work for the purpose of contributing to a commons of creative, cultural and scientific works (“Commons”) that the public can reliably and without fear of later claims of infringement build upon, modify, incorporate in other works, reuse and redistribute as freely as possible in any form whatsoever and for any purposes, including without limitation commercial purposes. These owners may contribute to the Commons to promote the ideal of a free culture and the further production of creative, cultural and scientific works, or to gain reputation or greater distribution for their Work in part through the use and efforts of others.

For these and/or other purposes and motivations, and without any expectation of additional consideration or compensation, the person associating CC0 with a Work (the “Affirmer”), to the extent that he or she is an owner of Copyright and Related Rights in the Work, voluntarily elects to apply CC0 to the Work and publicly distribute the Work under its terms, with knowledge of his or her Copyright and Related Rights in the Work and the meaning and intended legal effect of CC0 on those rights.

1. Copyright and Related Rights.

A Work made available under CC0 may be protected by copyright and related or neighboring rights (“Copyright and Related Rights”). Copyright and Related Rights include, but are not limited to, the following:

i. the right to reproduce, adapt, distribute, perform, display, communicate, and translate a Work; ii. moral rights retained by the original author(s) and/or performer(s); iii. publicity and privacy rights pertaining to a person’s image or likeness depicted in a Work; iv. rights protecting against unfair competition in regards to a Work, subject to the limitations in paragraph 4(a), below; v. rights protecting the extraction, dissemination, use and reuse of data in a Work; vi. database rights (such as those arising under Directive 96/9/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 11 March 1996 on the legal protection of databases, and under any national implementation thereof, including any amended or successor version of such directive); and vii. other similar, equivalent or corresponding rights throughout the world based on applicable law or treaty, and any national implementations thereof.

2. Waiver.

To the greatest extent permitted by, but not in contravention of, applicable law, Affirmer hereby overtly, fully, permanently, irrevocably and unconditionally waives, abandons, and surrenders all of Affirmer’s Copyright and Related Rights and associated claims and causes of action, whether now known or unknown (including existing as well as future claims and causes of action), in the Work (i) in all territories worldwide, (ii) for the maximum duration provided by applicable law or treaty (including future time extensions), (iii) in any current or future medium and for any number of copies, and (iv) for any purpose whatsoever, including without limitation commercial, advertising or promotional purposes (the “Waiver”). Affirmer makes the Waiver for the benefit of each member of the public at large and to the detriment of Affirmer’s heirs and successors, fully intending that such Waiver shall not be subject to revocation, rescission, cancellation, termination, or any other legal or equitable action to disrupt the quiet enjoyment of the Work by the public as contemplated by Affirmer’s express Statement of Purpose.

3. Public License Fallback.

Should any part of the Waiver for any reason be judged legally invalid or ineffective under applicable law, then the Waiver shall be preserved to the maximum extent permitted taking into account Affirmer’s express Statement of Purpose. In addition, to the extent the Waiver is so judged Affirmer hereby grants to each affected person a royalty-free, non transferable, non sublicensable, non exclusive, irrevocable and unconditional license to exercise Affirmer’s Copyright and Related Rights in the Work (i) in all territories worldwide, (ii) for the maximum duration provided by applicable law or treaty (including future time extensions), (iii) in any current or future medium and for any number of copies, and (iv) for any purpose whatsoever, including without limitation commercial, advertising or promotional purposes (the “License”). The License shall be deemed effective as of the date CC0 was applied by Affirmer to the Work. Should any part of the License for any reason be judged legally invalid or ineffective under applicable law, such partial invalidity or ineffectiveness shall not invalidate the remainder of the License, and in such case Affirmer hereby affirms that he or she will not (i) exercise any of his or her remaining Copyright and Related Rights in the Work or (ii) assert any associated claims and causes of action with
